++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry start then cloudy with occasional rain. Strengthening southerly winds.

Today:
Dry at first, perhaps some brightness for Shetland, otherwise cloudy with occasional rain developing. It will be a milder day than of late, though southerly winds will gradually strengthen through the day, perhaps touching gale force over Shetland. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying cloudy, and while there will be a little rain at times, there will be some longer dry spells too. The strong southerly winds will gradually ease. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Sunday:
Shetland will be cloudy in the morning with some rain, otherwise it will be bright with some sunshine and one or two showers. Moderate to fresh south to southwest breeze. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Sunshine and showers on Monday. Cloudier with some rain on Tuesday then back to sunshine and the odd shower on Wednesday.
